Abstract: We propose to approximate the Meixner model by a member of the $\beta$-family introduced in [Kuz10]. The advantage of such approximations are the semi-explicit formulas for the running extrema under the $\beta$-family processes which enables us to produce more efficient algorithms for certain exotic options.

Keywords: Lévy processes; Hitting probability; Barrier options.